ChargePoint shared price rate : r/electricvehicles

Many ChargePoint locations have 2 cables per charger and unfortunately will split the charge rate 6kw/h to 3kw/h when another car plugs in next to you. Do they charge the full rate

ChargePoint overcharge : r/evcharging

Chargepoint feels that they were merely executing the rate that the owner had set up, but they assisted the owner in fraudulently collecting more than the posted rate--ideally they would

Emporia or ChargePoint? Why? :

r/evcharging

ChargePoint, mostly because my electric company doesn't offer any incentives with Emporia. Also, have read that the CP install is easier if you are using hardwired and feeding from the back of the device.
